The department of Sociology and the department of Philosophy organised a Workshop on “GANDHI AT 150” on 20/02/2020 in the College premises. Workshop began at 7.30 A.M on the same day with “SWACHHA COLLEGE” where the activity of cleanliness of the campus was made by the Students of both the departments.

At 11. 30 A.M , “ Posters Competition and Presentation” made by the students on Gandhi was inaugurated by the two eminent Resource Persons, Dr.PabakKanungo and Dr.DurgamadhabPraharaj. The Resource Persons also inaugurated the “Book Exhibition on Gandhi” . A seminar on “Gandhi as a Social Reformer” and “Gandhi as a Moral Man” was conducted in the Workshop. Two eminent Gandhian Scholar Dr.PabakKanungo and Dr.DurgamadhabPraharaj deliberate their talk on the above Topic.

The intended workshop is a humble attempt to excavate the subtle nuances of Gandhi’s thought and taps the techniques to employ in the current society. The workshop discusses and debates various aspects of Gandhian thought and endeavour to inject such a vibrant ideology in to young minds. Apart from the theoretical understanding of Gandhian thought, the workshop also aims at imparting Gandhian way of life through poster designing, exhibition on different books on Gandhiji and practical session on cleaning the college campus. The intended workshop is a novel way of looking Gandhi after his 150 years of birth.

Workshop ended with a meaningful concept and successful programme.
