

SALIPUR AUTONOMOUS COLLEGE, SALIPUR
DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS
REPORT OF THE FIRST AUTONOMOUS SEMINAR
Date. 14-Oct-2017.

First Autonomous Seminar was organized by the Department of Statistics in the career counseling Hall on 14.10.2017 for the session 2017-18. The topic of the seminar was "Some Emerging Techniques in Population Models and its Application". Dr. Pradip Kumar Tripathy, Prof. P.G. Department of Statistics, Utkal University, Vani Vihar, Bhubaneswar delivered his eloquent speech as Resource Person. Our esteemed Principal Prof. Saroj Kumar Mohanty presided over the seminar. He delivered his wel-come address. The seminar was attended by the faculty member Dr. Sitanshu Shekher Mishra, Lecturer in Statistics and the Statistics Honours students of 1st year, 2nd year and 3rd year. Introductory speech was given by Mr. Karunakar Muduli, H.O.D. Statistics. In his speech Mr. K.K. Muduli highlighted the study of the statistics and its scope for the future aspirants. This seminar was also attended by Dr. Pravat Kumar Routray, H.O.D. Zoology and Dr. Sangita Mishra, H.O.D. Mathematics and Academic Bursar. Prof. P. K. Tripathy, as resource person gave his intellectual recourse in the above topic. He focused on population models and its application in the present day context. The seminar came to an end with the vote of thanks by Miss Prajnasmita Rout, Seminar Secretary.

H.O.D Statistics
Salipur Auto College,

Dept. of Statistics

09

